

Mauro Montagner appointed CEO of Edizione Property

Treviso, 10 January 2018 - Mauro Montagner, 51, assumes from today's date the role of Chief Executive Officer of Edizione Property SpA, the 100% subsidiary of Edizione Srl active in the real estate sector.

Montagner, from 2013 to December 2017 was CEO of Allianz Real Estate for Southern Europe and member of the Executive Committee and of the Investment Committee of Allianz Real Estate.

Prior to joining Allianz, he was Managing Director at Morgan Stanley Real Estate and He was previously a Director at Curzon Global Partners at the London office.

Montagner has a degree in architecture from the University of Venice, has a Certificate in Microeconomics from the London School of Economics and a Masters in Real Estate from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston.

Edizione Property is one of the most important European real estate companies and today holds a portfolio of 112 prestigious properties - 59 in Italy and 53 in 16 other European countries - focusing on high street retail, including the Fondaco dei Tedeschi di Venezia. The current market value of its assets is estimated at around 1.6 billion euros.

For further information:
Federico Sartor, +39335298292