

EDIZIONE

Treviso 16th August 2018 - Edizione Srl, on behalf of its shareholders and its management, expresses deep sympathy to the families of the victims and its closeness to the injured and to all those involved in the tragic bridge collapse that took place in Genoa.

Edizione, as the reference shareholder of the listed company Atlantia, owned through the Italian company Sintonia, will do everything in its power to facilitate the verification of the truth and responsibilities of the event.

Edizione is certain of the determined willingness to cooperate with the Institutions and the Authorities by the operating company Autostrade per l'Italia and its parent company Atlantia, which over the past 10 years have invested more than 10 billion euros in the expansion and modernization of the Italian motorway network.
