

Edizione shares the strategic guidelines communicated by Atlantia, intends to support their pursuit and will not adhere to the buy-back

Treviso, June 15th 2021 - In light of the Strategic Update published by Atlantia S.p.a. (the "Company") and presented today to the financial community, Edizione S.r.l. ("Edizione") - also in the name of its subsidiary Sintonia S.p.A. - announces that it appreciates and shares the strategic guidelines developed by the Company, as well as the underlying values that inspired them.

Edizione- in its role as stable and long-term shareholder - intends to support the Company in its direct commitment to seize and develop the strategic opportunities it has set for itself. For this reason, confirming its convinced support for the policy that the Company intends to pursue in terms of return on the investment for the shareholders, Edizione considers it appropriate not to adhere to the buy-back plan announced by the Company, as a tangible sign of its intention to keep its shareholding unchanged.

For more information:
Federico Sartor
+39335298292
www.edizione.com